

SELECTION OF READING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Return this form to Ashley Zigler approximately eight weeks prior to the proposed date of your Final Examination.

At least three members of the supervisory committee must serve on the reading committee. At least one of the members of the reading committee must hold an endorsement to chair doctoral committees. The reading committee is appointed to read and approve the dissertation. It is the responsibility of a reading committee to (a) ensure that the dissertation is a significant contribution to knowledge and is an acceptable piece of scholarly writing; (b) determine the appropriateness of a candidate's dissertation as a basis for issuing a warrant for a Final Examination and; (c) approve a candidate's dissertation.

I have selected the following members of my supervisory committee to read my dissertation:
